

Book day,
what a wonderful excuse to celebrate -
a source of knowledge, inspiration and pleasure.

The art room made a selection of books to link with the curriculum and blow up children's imagination.

SWIMMY _ NURSERY

The power of teamwork is the theme of 'Swimmy', a wonderful book by Leo Leonni. Thanks to Swimmy, Nursery encountered the diverse and fantastic creatures from the sea. They worked in the art room on their own representations of Swimmy's puppet world, which culminated in Nursery's shadow puppet show, featuring William as the special narrator.

CIRCUS _ YEAR 2

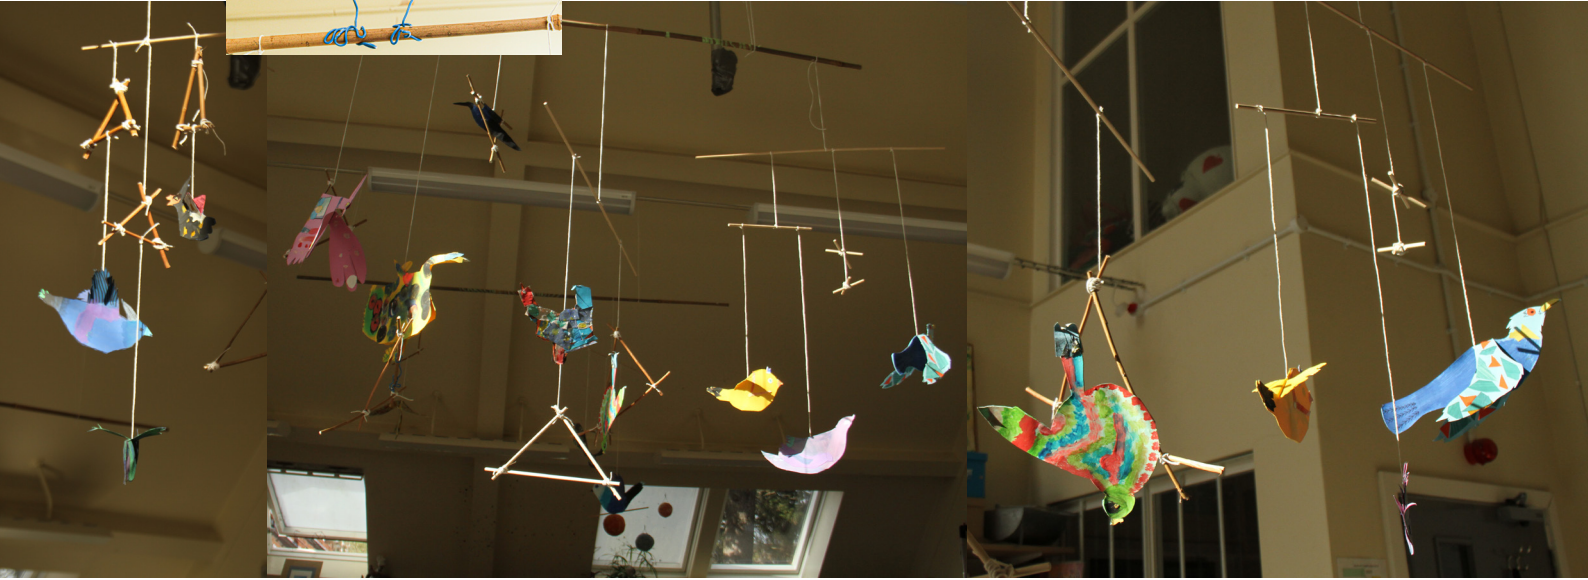

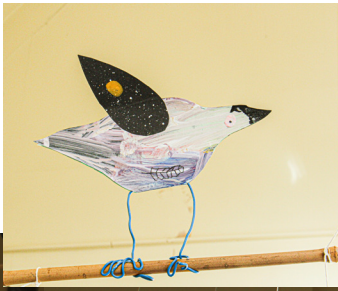

Analysing circus poster design and inspired by 'The Circus' book and the illustrations of Vladimir Levedev, children designed their simple, expressive and dynamic characters to be part of a poster to boost Year 2 Circus 2023.

Migration

In the treetops in the bushes,
there are new songs and colours.
The little birds are back.

They've flown so far!
Over forest, mountains, deserts, seas-
such a long, long way to get back to us.

Yet here they are,
bright and alive, fluttering singing,
ready for the spring.

FLIGHT_ YEAR 4 NURTURE GROUP

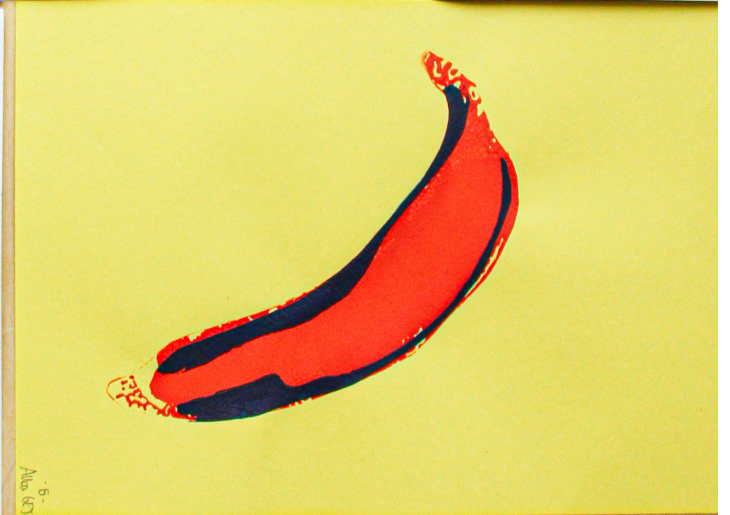

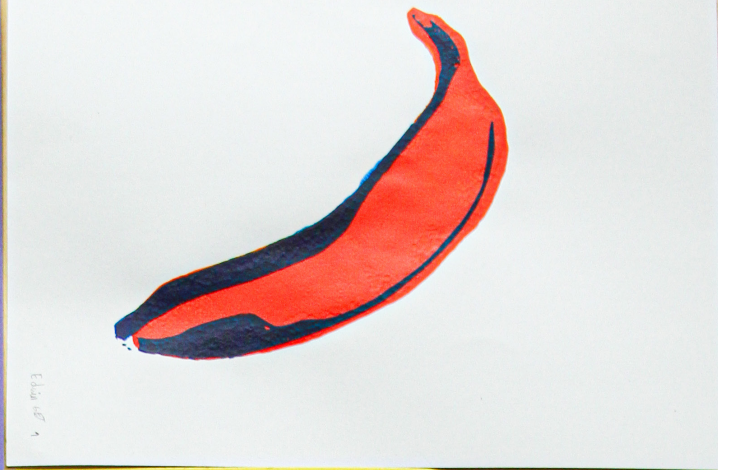

Blanche Nevile, some children from Year 4 and the art Club, made a mobile of hanging birds inspired by the poem 'Migration' by Nicola Davies and the illustrations of Mark Hearld. Children used collage mixed media including textured paper cutting, pen and ink. The work resulted in a huge variety of species.

POP ART_ YEAR 6

The art room became 'The Factory' to learn about the method of screen printing. Children made their own reproduction of Andy Warhol's LP design cover, the Velvet Underground & Nico.

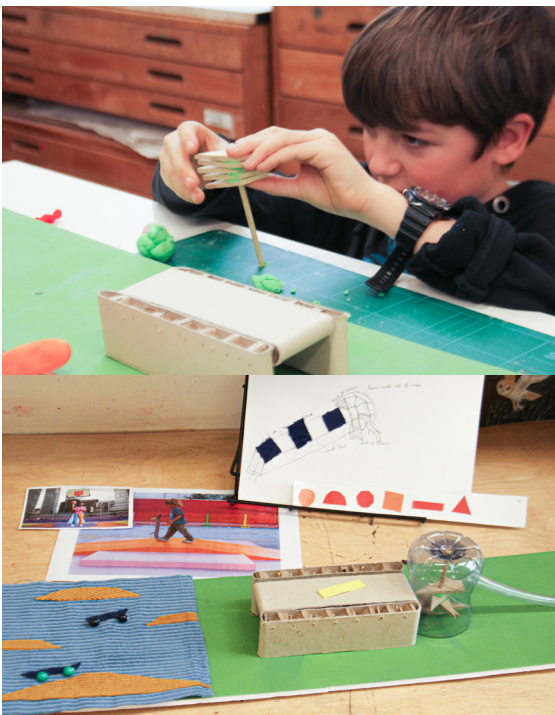

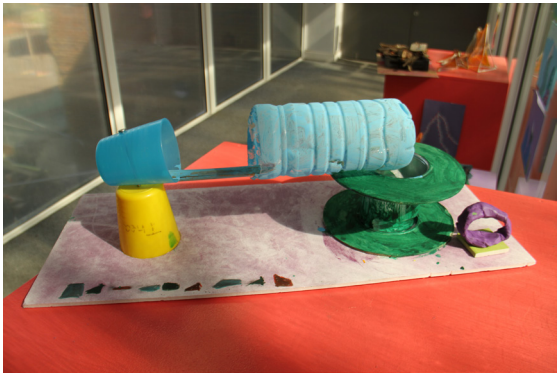

YINKA'S CHALLENGE

The five participants of the Craft School Yinka's Challenge worked in the art room to make a 3D model of their final ideas. They came up with clear ideas about materials and construction for their projects. The 3D models are playfull and genuine designs.

GROWN-UP WORKSHOPS UNIQUE EMBROIDERY EVENING

With Carin's support, we all learned backstitch embroidery and the technique of applying the ribbons for a drawstring bag. Everyone focused and worked hard on their project. Creative designs from a creative community.
